Code of Conduct Policy

To ensure that every participant attending the Continuing Challenge HazMat Workshop has the opportunity to learn and fully enjoy the workshop, the Continuing Challenge Committee has adopted the following Code of Conduct to apply to everyone attending the workshop.

1. All attendees shall be registered either as a participant, instructor, staff, or exhibitor.
2. Workshop attendees shall wear their issued name badge at all times during workshop sessions, classes, meals, and exhibitor display times.
3. Every participant will be provided an individual class schedule, based on their personal request/available classes. Participants are expected to follow and attend each class that they have been assigned.
4. If a participant wishes to change their class schedule they must make a request at the registration desk.
5. Workshop meal functions require a meal ticket and attendees shall have their ticket ready to present at the door.
6. ALL workshop attendees will be expected to conduct themselves in a professional manner at all times while at the workshop to be a credit to themselves and their organization or agency.
